AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th of December, 1796,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act "to authorize His Majesty, for a limited Time, to "make Regulations respecting the Trade and Com- "merce to and from the Cape of Good Hope," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, by any Order or Orders, to be issued from Time to Time, to give such Directions, and make such Regulations, touching the Trade and Commerce to and from the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any of the Acts of Parliament therein referred to, or any Usage, Law or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas during the Time the said Settlement, with the Territories and Dependencies thereof, were in the Possession and under the Government of the States General of the United Provinces, or of the Honorable the General East India Company in the Netherlands, it was usual to admit the Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Countries in Amity with the said United Provinces into the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, for Repair and Refreshment, and, with that View, to permit the said Ships and Vessels to carry on Trade with the Inhabitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof. — His Majesty is hereby pleased to order, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above recited Act, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful, until further Order, for all Ships and Vessels belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, as well as for all Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any Country or State in Amity with His Majesty, to enter into the Ports of the said Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to carry on Trade and Traffick with the Inhabitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to import and export to and from the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatsoever, subject to the following Exceptions, and subject also to such Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as shall be established by His Majesty, or by the Governor of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, by virtue of Authority derived from His Majesty; and in the mean Time subject to such Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as subsisted and were in Force before and at the Time of the Conquest of the said Settlement by the Arms of His Majesty, with such Alterations as have been since made under the Authority of the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at the said Settlement: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure that no Goods Wares or Merchandize, which shall be imported into the said Settlement,

[Price Nine-pence.]

Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majeſty's Dominions, ſhall be ſubject to any Duty.

And it is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that no Goods, Wares or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Countries to the Eaſtward of the Cape of Good Hope, be imported into the ſaid Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the United Company of Merchants trading to the Eaſt Indies; and that no ſuch Goods, Wares or Merchandize, be permitted to be exported from thence, except for Sea Stores only, or by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or by their Licence.

But it is His Majeſty's Pleaſure that nothing in this Order contained ſhall extend to prevent Ships or Veſſels employed in the Southern Whale Fiſhery from carrying on the ſame in ſuch and the ſame Manner as might have been done if this Order had not been made.

And it is alſo His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that no Arms or Artillery, Gunpowder or Ammunition, of any Sort, be allowed to be imported into the ſaid Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or by Licence from His Majeſty.

And it is His Majeſty's further Pleaſure, that the Trade and Commerce to and from the ſaid Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch of the Laws of Trade and Navigation as would have affected the ſame if this Order had not been made, except ſo far as ſuch Laws are contrary to this preſent Order.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Parliament-Street, January 16, 1797.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are an Extract and Copy, have been this Day received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Charles Graham, commanding His Majeſty's Troops in the Leeward Iſlands in the Abſence of Lieutenant-General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Charles Graham to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, dated Head Quarters, Martinico, October 16, 1796.

OUR Affairs in Grenada wear the moſt favourable Aſpect, I may ſay, indeed, Tranquillity is completely reſtored, as they enjoy it in the moſt compreheſive Senſe: The Communication throughout the Iſland is perfectly open; there are ſome few Stragglers, no Doubt, in the Woods, but they never moleſt even ſingle Paſſengers, and their Number is ſo inconſiderable, and their State ſo wretched, that they rather deſerve our Contempt than merit our Reſentment. Fédon has not yet been taken, and Opinions are various with reſpect to his Death or Eſcape, the former, however, I think moſt probable, as it is reported a Canoe, that had been overſet, was found by a Veſſel ſome Diſtance from the Coaſt, with a Compaſs nailed to the Bottom, which was known to be one that he had had in his Poſſeſſion; it is therefore likely he may have been loſt, in endeavouring to make his Eſcape.

I embrace with Satisfaction the Opportunity this affords me of having the Honour to inform you, that a Negotiation has been opened, for a general Exchange of Priſoners, with the Commiſſioners of the French Republic at Guadaloupe; the Commiſſary ſent here to treat on that Buſineſs has in conſequence returned with Two Hundred, an equal Number of our's are to be ſent by the Cartel; when the Buſineſs is finally ſettled, I ſhall have the Pleaſure of acquainting you with the Particulars.

Head Quarters, Martinico, November 13, 1796.

SIR,

IT affords me great Satisfaction to have an Opportunity of informing you of the entire Reduction of the Brigands and Charibs in St. Vincent's, which was communicated to me by Major General Hunter ſhortly after I had the Honor of addreſſing you on the 16th Ultimo; a Copy of whoſe Letter I herewith tranſmit, together with the Return of Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CHARLES GRAHAM, Major-General.

St. Vincent's, October 18, 1796.

SIR,

WHEN I had the Honor of writing to your Excellency on the 22d of Auguſt, I incloſed a Copy of the Terms offered to the Charibs by Governor Seton and myſelf, in conſequence of Sir Ralph Abercromby's Orders and Inſtructions to me upon that Subject. At the ſame Time I acquainted you with the Plan I had adopted in order to reduce the remaining Brigands, and to compel the Charibs to ſurrender.

I have now the Satisfaction to inform you of the total Reduction of the Brigands and Charibs on this Iſland.

Marin Padre, (a Negroe of St. Lucia) who has commanded the Brigands and Charibs ſince the Capture of the Vigie, and who had great Influence and Authority over both, ſurrendered on the 2d Inſtant.

The Number of Brigands who have ſurrendered or been taken ſince the 4th of July amounts to 725, the Number of Charibs to 4633, including Women and Children.

I have much Pleaſure in making known to you, for His Majeſty's Information, the Zeal, Activity and Humanity which have actuated every Deſcription of Officers and Soldiers employed under my Command during the Whole of the Charib War; and I am happy to ſay, that, notwithſtanding the Seaſon of the Year and the Fatigue the Troops have undergone, they are in general very healthy.

Inclosed you will receive a Return of the Killed and Wounded of His Majesty's Troops since the Commencement of the Charib War.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

P. HUNTER, Maj. Gen.

To his Excellency
Major-General Graham.

Whitehall, January 16, 1797.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from Governor Seton by his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, dated St. Vincent's, October 12, 1796.

I Have the Satisfaction to inform your Grace, that Tranquillity is on the Eve of being restored to this Colony, owing in a very great Measure to the unremitted Exertions of Major-General Hunter, and to his humane Conduct towards the Enemy of every Description. All the Charib Chiefs have surrendered, their People are coming in daily, and we have at this Moment about Three Thousand Five Hundred in our Possession. Nearly all the Brigands, with their Leader, have also surrendered.

BY a subsequent Letter, from the Governor to his Grace, dated St. Vincent's, the 16th of November last, it appears, that the Remainder of the Charibs and Brigands had surrendered themselves, and that the Island was in a State of perfect Tranquillity.

Whitehall, January 17.

Extract of a Letter from His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to His Grace the Duke of Portland, dated Dublin Castle, January 10, 1797.

I Have the Satisfaction to acquaint your Grace, that since the Information transmitted to Mr. Greville that the French had entirely left Bantry Bay, there has been no Re-appearance of them upon the Coasts; so that I trust, from the Violence of the Tempest, and from their Ships being ill found and ill victualled, their Expedition is for the present frustrated.

Upon reviewing what has passed during this Expedition of the Enemy, I have the Satisfaction to reflect, that the best Spirit was manifested by His Majesty's Regular and Militia Forces; and I have every Reason to believe, that if a Landing had taken Place, they would have displayed the utmost Fidelity. When the Flank Companies of the Antrim Regiment were formed, the whole Regiment turned out, to a Man, with Expressions of the greatest Eagerness to march; and the Downshire Regiment, to a Man, declared they would stand and fall by their Officers.

At the Time the Army was ordered to march the Weather was extremely severe: I therefore ordered them a Proportion of Spirits upon their Route, and directed an Allowance of Four-pence a Day to their Wives until their Return. During their March the utmost Attention was paid them by the Inhabitants of the Towns and Villages through which they passed; so that in many Places the Meat provided by the Commissariat was not consumed. The Roads, which in Parts had been rendered impassable by the Snow, were cleared by the Peasantry. The poor People often shared their Potatoes with them, and dressed their Meat without demanding Payment; of which there was a very particular Instance in the Town of Banagher, where no Gentleman or principal Farmer resides to set them the Example. At Carlow a considerable Subscription was made for the Troops as they passed; and at Limerick and Cork every Exertion was used to facilitate the Carriage of Artillery and Baggage, by Premiums to the Carmen; and in the Town of Galway, which for a short Time was left with a very inadequate Garrison, the Zeal and Ardor of the Inhabitants and Yeomanry was peculiarly manifested, and in a Manner to give me the utmost Satisfaction. In short, the general good Disposition of the People through the South and West was so prevalent, that had the Enemy landed, their Hope of Assistance from the Inhabitants would have been totally disappointed.

From the armed Yeomanry Government derived the most honourable Assistance. Noblemen and Gentlemen of the first Property vied in exerting themselves at the Head of their Corps. Much of the Express and Escort Duty was performed by them. In Cork, Limerick and Galway they took the Duty of the Garrison. Lord Shannon informs me, that Men of Three and Four Thousand Pounds a Year were employed in escorting Baggage and carrying Expresses.

Expreſſes. Mr. John Latouche, who was a Private in his Son's Corps, rode Twenty-five Miles in one of the ſevereſt Nights, with an Expreſs, it being his Turn for Duty. The Merchants of Dublin, many of them of the firſt Eminence, marched Sixteen Irish Miles with a Convoy of Arms to the North, whither it was conducted by Reliefs of Yeomanry. The Appearance in this Metropolis has been highly meritorious. The Corps have been formed of the moſt reſpectable Barriſters, Attornies, Merchants, Gentlemen and Citizens, and their Number is ſo conſiderable, and their Zeal in mounting Guards ſo uſeful, that I was enabled greatly to reduce the Garriſon with perfect Safety to the Town. The Numbers of Yeomanry fully appointed and diſciplined in Dublin exceed Two Thouſand. Above Four Hundred of whom are Horſe. The whole Number of Corps approved by Government amount to Four Hundred and Forty, excluſive of the Dublin Corps. The groſs Number is nearly Twenty-five Thouſand. There are alſo Ninety-one Offers of Service under Conſideration, and One Hundred and Twenty-five Propoſals have been declined; and, in Reply to a circular Letter written to the Commandants of the reſpective Corps, their Anſwers almoſt univerſally contained a general Offer of Service in any Part of the Kingdom.

Many prominent Examples of individual Loyalty and Spirit have appeared. An uſeful Impreſſion was made upon the Minds of the lower Catholics by a judicious Addreſs from Dr. Moylan, the titular Biſhop of Cork. I cannot but take Notice of the Exertions of Lord Kenmare, who ſpared no Expence in giving Aſſiſtance to the commanding Officer in his Neighbourhood, and who took into his own Demeſne, a great Quantity of Cattle which had been driven from the Coaſt. Nor could any Thing exceed the Ardor of the Earl of Ormonde, who, when his Regiment of Militia was retained as Part of the Garriſon of Dublin, ſolicited with ſo much Zeal a Command in the Flank Companies, that I thought it a Meaſure due to His Majeſty's Service to encourage his Lordſhip's Requeſt.
